CHELSEA.

Walter S. Goss spent Sunday with friends in South Royalton.

Mrs. Della Whitney is visiting the family of her brother, Wilbur F. Dewey, on the west hill.

Judge C. H. Bigelow was in town on Monday in the interest of the Brookfield fork shops, for which institution he is traveling salesman.

Miss May L. Dickenson has closed her house for a few weeks and went recently to East Randolph to do dress-making in the family of Dr. H. L. Newell.

Karl and Ruby Kenerson are ill with the chicken pox.

Fred Stinson is driving J. A. R. Corwin & Son's freight team while the regular driver, Herbert Garvin, is taking a vacation.

Phil J. Little, who has been ill for several weeks with typhoid fever, has so far recovered as to be able to walk out and called on friends on the street Tuesday.

The Methodist church is undergoing repairs, the most important of which is new underpinning. Ellery Bicknell of Tunbridge is superintending the work.

Miss Nora Smith is caring for Mrs. F. E. Hood, who is recovering from an attack of septicaemia.

Attorneys George L. Stow and Stanley C. Wilson were in West Corinth on Monday attending a law suit between Willie Magoon, plaintiff, and George Burroughs, defendant. Mr. Stow acted in the capacity of the court, and Mr. Wilson as attorney for Mr. Magoon.

Dr. A. B. Smith and wife have returned from Boston, where they went on the excursion.

Fred Parkhurst left the first of the week for Brattleboro to work at his trade as painter and paper hanger, with his brother, Rolla Parkhurst.

Miss Hall of Fitchburg, Mass., daughter of the late Martin L. Hall, was in town Sunday to attend the funeral of her uncle, the late Samuel Gardner Hall. She made the journey by automobile.

At the funeral of the late Samuel Gardner Hall on Sunday last, the Rev. George E. Lake officiated and the services were in charge of Dr. A. T. Marshall. Wm. F. Hood, E. B. Barnes, W. St. Hatch and Dr. F. H. Godfrey acted as bearers. The remains were taken on the night train to Boston, Mass., by E. D. Barnes for cremation at the Forest Hills cemetery.

Mrs. Albert W. Hoyt is one of the latest victims of whooping cough and is seriously ill.

SOUTH RYEGATE.

The South-Ryegate creamery had its annual meeting on Tuesday, October 16, and the following figures were somewhat interesting to the stockholders, at least, and show a slight gain in the volume of business from any previous year. The number of pounds of milk received during the year was 1,623,074; cream, 241,244; pounds of butter made, 135,431 pounds; amount paid to patrons, $28,704.17; total receipts, $39,296.78; expenses, $3,447.65; average surplus, 14.56 per cent; average price received 22.76 cents per pound; average price paid patrons, 23.53 cents on test; average price paid patrons, 20.65 cents on churn; cost of making butter, 2.49 cents per pound. The old board of directors was re-elected, also the old board of auditors, and a vote was carried to pay a per cent dividend, payable at some time previous to January 1, 1907, at the discretion of the treasurer. The corporation is in a flourishing condition and has bright prospects ahead. The plant is in excellent repair and the demand for butter is greater than can be supplied.

Mr. and Mrs. Flynn, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carbee, met with quite a serious accident at Woodsville, N. H., while out driving. The horse became frightened and jumped, throwing the seat and both occupants to the ground. Mrs. Flynn is seriously hurt.

The postoffice at Newbury Center was discontinued October 16, on account of the insufficient number of patrons. The office was kept by W. B. Tewksbury for more than 25 years. Since his death his son has attended to the office.

Mrs. Mary Nelson and daughter, Mattie, left October 16 for California, where they expect to make their home. They leave a host of warm friends who wish them well.

Mrs. A. T. Beaton and Miss Odessa M. Whitaker went to Randolph last week as delegates to the State Sunday School convention. Mrs. Charles Grant was also a delegate from the latter church.

Will Terry was in Groton on business last Monday and called on many friends.

Danger from the Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of coughs and colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs, and colds. Mrs. Geo. Walls of Forest City, Me., writes: "It's a Godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quickly ends them. It prevents pneumonia, cures a gripe, gives wonderful relief in asthma and hay fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off consumption, coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by the Red Cross pharmacy, Trial bottle free."

CLASSIC BOOTH AT FOOD FAIR.

National Biscuit Co. Has Superb Edifice and Decorations.

The progressive, enterprising National Biscuit company, now at the pinnacle of its prosperity, is among the foremost exhibitors at the National Food Fair in Mechanics' building, with its magnificent edifice within an edifice, representing the ancient Greek Parthenon, the pillars and framework of which are Nalisco cartoons.

Exquisitely beautiful, especially at night, when illuminated with a variety of electric lights, the exhibit, the result of immense expense and extraordinary artistic talent, ranks high among the exhibits in the paradise-like grand hall, and is particularly conspicuous because of its admirable location. The stage when it lies in full view from the galleries on the other three sides of the hall.

One of the chief prizes of the entire fair is the National Biscuit company's exhibit. Favorably passed upon by the unanimous judgment of the thousands that thronged in to see the elaborate opening of the fair, the display is conceded fully to deserve a place in the centre of interest.

That the National Biscuit company's display proved a great factor in the success of the entire Boston Food Fair was freely admitted by many of the leading members and officers of the fair. Interest in the wide advertisements that the company has been issuing, predicting the extraordinary magnificence of their exhibit, undoubtedly by itself drew hundreds.

In four years the National Biscuit company's display has been good. Each succeeding year it has been times and times again better. This year it is the best ever. The National Biscuit company is always among the first in the way of successful improvements and advances, and its exhibit at the Food Fair has unquestionably proved to be no exception.

The public is reminded again that opportunities to witness such splendor and grandeur are rarely afforded and that great will be the regret of all who fail to take advantage of the exceptional chance.—Boston Post, Oct. 3.

How Would You Like This Laundry?

Prices are high in South Africa, and bills for laundry are frequently exorbitant. Persian, Kaffir and Cape women do the work after a fashion. "One usually pays 8c per month a head," says a woman correspondent. "And the woman who wishes for you takes everything for that, but is apt to vanish for a month on end with your clothes. You seek and find her after infinite difficulty and discover her in the bosom of her family, her husband and sons arrayed in the clothes of your mankind, if you have any, and her daughter and herself in yours. I walked in on my laundry one morning after seeking her ten days and found her in my best white silk tea gown, squatting on the earth cooking herself a meal, while her daughter sat near in my valise-suit lace petticoat and tea jacket peeling potatoes."—Chicago News.

Continuous Performance.

"Hurry, hurry! Let's get out of the way. Here comes Jagley."
"Why are you afraid of him?"

Mr. and Mrs. Mayo took in the excursion to Montreal and returned this afternoon after a pleasant trip.

Miss Gladys French of Barre spent Sunday in town with friends.

TOO MUCH LIKE FRENCH.

Russian Says His Countrymen March to "Marsellaise."

After the meeting I had a private conversation with the speaker. I explained to him the perplexity into which I had been thrown by the unaccountable change that had passed over the Russian people, whom I had previously found possessed of apparently inexhaustible patience and endurance in the world requiring to be restrained from violence and bloodshed, but into whose life some disturbing element seemed to have entered, operating, as it were, chemically and altering the very character of the Slav, regenerating, indeed, but from beneath rather than from above. "The people are unchanged," replied the Jew; "their excesses are not natural to them, but are simply the result of an attempt to make their revolution conform to the French revolution, and in proportion as they succeed in making the two externally alike, they will ruin both it and themselves."

This criticism, in spite of its exaggeration, is not without point. Russians are continually drawing spurious analogies between the two revolutions, and by reason of their efforts to create analogies their revolution is itself in danger of becoming spurious. The march of Paris marched to Versailles and forced the king to return with them to the capital. "Go to!" say some Russians; "we will seize the czar at Petersburg and bring him to St. Petersburg"—and only discovery by the police prevented the attempt. Moscow marches hither and thither not right behind them; they were primarily in imitation of the Paris barricades, and only secondarily, if at all, for defense. "Wave red flags, O ye Russians, and march to the tune of the 'Marsellaise'!" for so did the men of the revolution in France. I have heard workmen attempting to pronounce "Gironde" and "Jacobin"; and, if this folly continues to spread, we shall ultimately see a Russian guillotine—the article as well as the noun! The Firms observed a self-sacrificing ordinance and drank no spirituous liquors during their "general strike." vodka and histories of the French revolution are Russian intoxicants; abstinence from both would be best, but I refrain from counsels of perfection and simply suggest that a beginning be made with the books, so that the revolution, when it comes, may at least be Russian in its essence and form, instinctive, elemental, irresistible. "Close up those barren leaves."—London Times.

THUMPING HEADACHES

Many Barre Women Have Them, But Few Know the Real Cause.

Dull, thumping headaches, Sick, prostrating headaches, Dizzy, whirling, blind headaches—Point to disorders of the kidneys. Tell of uric poisons in the blood. Narcotics may ease the pain But won't cure the cause.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure the kidneys, Remove uric poisons, purify the blood, Banish headache, backache, urinary ills. Here's Barre testimony to prove it.

Mrs. Annie Gibb, of 21 Brooklyn street, Barre, Vt., says: "For over a year I had more or less backache, brought on, I think, by a disordered condition of the kidneys. If I brought too much strain on the muscles of my back, sharp pains would take me, and I also suffered from headaches and spells of dizziness. When I overworked or caught cold it always made the trouble worse. I read a good deal about Doan's Kidney Pills and went to E. A. Drown's drug store for a box. Before I had taken all the pills in this one box my back was relieved, and when I had finished a second box the pains had ceased and I felt better in every way. I am glad to recommend such a reliable remedy as Doan's Kidney Pills proved to be in my case."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

New Incandescent Lamps.

During the past year the new electric lamps, with filaments of tantalum, osmium or zirconium instead of carbon, have been widely tested with most promising results. Many of these lamps are now in use in Europe. Still it is felt that the best possible results have not yet been obtained, and inventors continue to seek improvements.

In the best of these lamps, says the Revue Generale des Sciences, only a hundredth part of the electric energy expended is utilized in luminous radiation. Inasmuch as the luminous efficiency is rapidly augmented with increase of temperature, almost as the fifth power of the temperature, the latest efforts have been directed to securing the greatest possible elevation of the temperature of the filaments.

The Putnam Cottage.

The Putnam cottage in Greenwich, Conn., is to be dedicated as a museum by Putnam chapter. Daughters of the American Revolution. This is a small house whose legend is that Israel Putnam was occupying it as his quarters when surprised by British cavalry, and he dashed away on his trusty mare down the precipitous steps of "Put's hill," was shot at, but turned at the foot of the steps and shouted, "I'll hang ye to the next tree when I get ye!" The cottage is about 200 years old.

CLAY FARM,--- 1 1/2 Miles from this City.

This elegant Farm containing 108 acres, has been placed with us for immediate sale. We believe it would be difficult to find a more desirable place, either as a money maker or in more pleasant location. The place will carry 25 cows, summer and winter, and produces about 70 tons of hay. The soil is especially rich and productive, being well adapted for any crop. Tillage land lays well. Pasture can be plowed, and for its size cannot be beat in the county. The cut gives an idea of the buildings, but the place must be seen to be appreciated. Nice water and plenty of fruit and wood. We will be pleased to show you this property and tell you about the income derived from it. Large photograph at office. Call any time. Open every evening except Thursday.
